The belief that there's another life awaiting us after our mortal existence ends is widely held and predates recorded history. While cultures such as the ancient Egyptians believed existence continued in "the Land of the Dead," modern Christian beliefs offer an afterlife in Heaven as a reward—or in Hell as a punishment.

The afterlife is steeped in God's divine love. We talked last week about the love that Jesus taught. And what most strikes new afterlife arrivals is the fact that God's love is the air they breathe! God's love is the light that illuminates the afterlife; God's love is the living and nurturing water that sparkles everywhere (see JN 4:10).

Question: "Why is being a good person not enough to get you into heaven?" Answer: If you ask most people what you have to do to get into heaven (assuming they believe in heaven or an afterlife), the overwhelming response will be some form of "be a good person." Most, if not all, religions and worldly philosophies are ethically based.
