In this subversive satire, a group of elites gather for the very first time at a remote Manor House to hunt ordinary Americans for sport. But the elites' master plan is about to be derailed because one of The Hunted, Crystal (Betty Gilpin, GLOW), knows The Hunters' game better than they do. She turns the tables on the killers, picking them off one by one as she makes her way toward the ...

I am extremely fascinated by the treasure hunt, and I really want to find one of the treasures. That part of the book was incredibly interesting, but the rest of the book, the part detailing the fair folk was only decent. It was funny with quick quips, but was a good way to fill a few minutes at a time.
