Dramaturgy is a sociological perspective commonly used in micro-sociological accounts of social interaction in everyday life.. The term was first adapted into sociology from the theatre by Erving Goffman, who developed most of the related terminology and ideas in his 1956 book, The Presentation of Self in Everyday Life. Kenneth Burke, whom Goffman would later acknowledge as an influence, had ...

Six Techniques for Presenting Data. Rosling employs GapMinder to display his statistics. This is a wonderful software tool for displaying data, but the real magic of this presentation lies in the techniques demonstrated by Rosling. These techniques are easy to do, but I've rarely (if ever) seen them all demonstrated so well in a single talk. The techniques are:
